Partial Obituary: (first column/page missing)

Amos, who died in South Bend.

John Marburger was united in marriage Nov. 19, 1885, to Miss Effie See, and to this union were born Mrs. Maude Zimmerman of Peru; Mrs. Dessie Overstreet, Deedsville; Miss Jennie Marburger, who died Dec. 11, 1908; Charles of Shadford, Wisconsin; Virgil and Garnet, both of who remain with the parents.

He confessed his Savior at about the age of seventeen years. He has been a member of the I.O.O.F. for the past thirty-four years.

He is survived by six brothers, three sisters, his companion, five children, fifteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Five grandchildren have preceded him in death. He has lived at his present home-stead for the last thirty-four years where after a protracted illness he died May 18, 1923, aged sixty-three years, three months, and three days.

In life, though of a very quiet and reserved disposition, yet he was genial and sociable and the friends he made he kept and they were as numerous as his acquaintances, because he never marred a friendship. The rich heritage left his family and friends may be summed up in his sterling honor, helpful influence and Christian character. A loving husband, kind father and splendid neighbor has fallen. His fraternal brethren may well pause in sadness and fix well in memory the virtues of one in whose life they may find much to emulate.

Notes for NORA MAUSALENE BISHOP:

Nora was stricken with smallpox a year after her marriage. Although she survived, she miscarried a female child who also had acquired the smallpox. Nora usually went by her middle name, Mausalene.

She worked at the post office in Twelve Mile, Indiana for several years. She later worked at the American Stationary. She was also an active participant in running the farm. She kept meticulous books as well as drove the tractor, and chased errant pigs. She would also haul grain to the elevator.

In failing health, suffering a heart attack and later a small stroke, she eventually gave up her home in 1991 and lived in various nursing homes. She spent nearly a year living with her daughter, Frances. She died at the age of 92 in 2000 after spending several years of not recognizing her family or being able to communicate.

More About NORA MAUSALENE BISHOP:

Burial: May 09, 2000, Greenlawn Cemetery, Mexico, Indiana

Medical Information: Adult onset diabetes, Myocardial Infarction, CVA, fractured hip, senile dementia. Five years in nursing homes.

Notes for HOMER ANDREW ASH:

Homer's parents moved to Peru Township in about 1912. He attended the Richer School, about a mile East of his home. It was built about the year 1820. It was first called "Brush College", and was destroyed by fire. The brick school that was built to replace it in 1910 was called "Mud College" because there was so much mud around the building. Later it became known as the Richer School as it was located on the old Chris Richer farm. Homer's son, Milton now owns the property on which the school is located. Homer, Hubert, Clayson and Flora Ash all attended school there. Students would often gather at noon and listen to their stump speaker, Samuel Dice, who delighted in telling them war stories or sometimes they would listen to Anise Richer, who also was a very interesting story teller. Lana Wilson, sister of Lelah Wilson Ash, taught at this school.

Times were tough during the depression, but thanks to the farm, food was usually available. Homer suffered a ruptured appendix and nearly died.

Homer bought William James Ash's farm south of Chili, Indiana, upon James' death in 1951. He was a hog and grain farmer. He also worked at and retired from the Olin Corporation where he worked as a watchman. He enjoyed carpentry work and held several jobs doing carpentry. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Peru and a member of the Masons. He and his wife spent several winters in Zephyrhills, Florida. He died similarly to his father...he fell over dead while working in the barn lot.
