Notes for ABRAHAM E. FLORA:

This family kept the name FLORY

In WFT, Volume 1, #546:

"He and Lavina had thirteen children, all born in Montgomery County. A marriage of one of the children is recorded in Whitley County, Indiana in 1855, so it is likely that he did not move to Darke County, Ohio with his father but rather, moved directly from Montgomery County to Indiana at about the same time (1852-1855). Several of his children were married in Indiana and then, with most of his children and their families, he moved to Douglas County, Kansas in 1864. One record, however, shows his son Christopher born in Darke County, Ohio, while another states that his wife Lavina was also born in Darke County. The discrepancy is slight, since Darke County is adjacent to Montgomery County. Both Abraham and Lavina are buried in the Flory Cemetery (now called Pleasant Hill) just behind the site of the house in which they lived at Pleasant Grove, Kansas."

He was born July 24, 1877 in Richland Township, Miami Co., Chili, Indiana, and died November 15, 1951 in Peru, Township, Miami County, Indiana⁵⁹.

Notes for ANNA ELIZABETH FLORA:

Anna Flora was the wife of William James Ash. They were married at the Flora home by the Reverend Frank Fisher.

From "A Genealogy and History of the descendants of Jacob Flora Senior of Franklin County, Virginia" compiled by Joel Cephas Flora, copyright 1951

"Many of the descendants of the immigrant father, Joseph J. Flory, Sr., family that landed at Philadelphia in 1733 are of the Dunker Brethren faith. Just when they were first won to this Protestant faith may be a debatable question. It could be possible that they may have joined the Dunker Brethren in Germany before coming to America. We have definite information that several members of this family joined the Brethren church in the Conestoga congregation in Lancaster County, PA. The Jacob Flora, Sr. of Franklin County, became a member of this congregation by baptism in 1748. The Brethren have many things in common with the Mennonites, the Quakers and the Moravians. All these sects settled in eastern Pennsylvania about the same time. The first Mennonites came in 1683 and the first Brethren in 1719. The Quakers and Moravians preceded them a few years....

The descendants of the Jacob Flora, Sr., or Franklin County, Virginia, donated the ground for the three pioneer Brethren churches. They have been loyal supporters of these churches through the years and are still active in their promotion.

Although the Flora family has generally been considered German, I (Joel) am strongly of the opinion that earlier they were French. The pioneer, Joseph, was listed as a Huguenot. This name was applied to French Lutherans by a monk in the course of one of his sermons because it was customary for the French Protestants to congregate around the palace of King Hugo during the evening. The various spellings, such as Fleury, Flury, Fleuri, used interchangeably in the earlier records confirm this French origin.

Joseph J. Flory's ancestors likely migrated from northeastern France across the border in Palatinate, Germany, shortly after the massacre of St. Bartholomew and 50,000 Protestants, which took place in France on August 24, 1572, and began to adapt themselves to their new German surroundings. In the 150 years before migration to America began, they became thoroughly German. The common language used by the immigrant family for the first two or three generations was very largely German. Early wills were also written in German.

William James ("Jim") probably attended the Port Royal School near Chili.

He was asked to play for the White Sox, but refused because they played on Sundays.

He played in a fun musical group called the Erie Punkin' Busters. He played fiddle, banjo, and bones.

In 1905, he and Anna were living on lot 20 in Chili, Richland Township, Indiana. The house was located at the east end of Third Street. An insurance policy with The German Insurance Company was written August 6, 1905 for $400 to cover a one-story, shingle roof, frame house, its contents, a barn and horses. No coverage was taken on "cows". The policy cost $4.00.

He worked on the railroad on a section crew, building and repairing track. He held that job until he bought the farm. In 1889, the Peru and Detroit Railroad was built from Peru to Chili, where it made connection with the Eel River Road. This may have been the railroad he worked on.

William and Anna purchased 47 acres around 1912, purchasing land in Peru Township, Miami County, Indiana farm from Albert Grimes. It was recorded in the Transfer book of Peru Township 1919-1923. The exact year was not recorded. Between 1928 and 1932, an additional 31 acres was added to the farm. He farmed with horses, Fanny, King, and Tony, until 1941, when he bought his first tractor.

Notes for HOMER ANDREW ASH:

Homer's parents moved to Peru Township in about 1912 . He attended the Richer School, about a mile East of his home. It was built about the year 1820. It was first called "Brush College", and was destroyed by fire. The brick school that was built to replace it in 1910 was called "Mud College" because there was so much mud around the building. Later it became known as the Richer School as it was located on the old Chris Richer farm. Homer's son, Milton now owns the property on which the school is located. Homer, Hubert, Clayson and Flora Ash all attended school there. Students would often gather at noon and listen to their stump speaker, Samuel Dice, who delighted in telling them war stories or sometimes they would listen to Anise Richer, who also was a very interesting story teller. Lana Wilson, sister of Lelah Wilson Ash, taught at this school.

Times were tough during the depression, but thanks to the farm, food was usually available. Homer suffered a ruptured appendix and nearly died.

Homer bought William James Ash's farm south of Chili, Indiana, upon James' death in 1951. He was a hog and grain farmer. He also worked at and retired from the Olin Corporation where he worked as a watchman. He enjoyed carpentry work and held several jobs doing carpentry. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Peru and a member of the Masons. He and his wife spent several winters in Zephyrhills, Florida. He died similarly to his father...he fell over dead while working in the barn lot.

She worked at the post office in Twelve Mile, Indiana for several years. She later worked at the American Stationary. She was also an active participant in running the farm. She kept meticulous books as well as drove the tractor, and chased errant pigs. She would also haul grain to the elevator.

In failing health, suffering a heart attack and later a small stroke, she eventually gave up her home in 1991 and lived in various nursing homes. She spent nearly a year living with her daughter, Frances. She died at the age of 92 in 2000 after spending several years of not recognizing her family or being able to communicate.

Notes for FLORA ALTHEO ASH:

Flora was a baby when the family moved to the Ash family farm, probably in 1912.

Flora never learned to drive. Before she was married, her brother, Harold, would take her to her job in his Pontiac Roadster. She had various jobs, one being at the Miami County Court House.

During World War II, Gration was assigned to the Aleutian Islands. Flora and the children moved to Alaska to be with him. Flora recounts that she would have to go out and chase the Eskimo children away from Melita Ann because they were so fascinated by her hair, they wanted to touch it all the time. Ann was pretty scared from the whole experience as she was very young at the time.

After Gration's sudden death in 1968, Flora continued to live in the Golden Hills addition in Peru until 1978. She then moved to Carmel, Indiana. The last year of her life was spent in Minnesota with her daughter Lynn. She died at Hillcrest Rehab and Healthcare Center in Wayzata, Minnesota.

She was a 1929 graduate of Peru High school and grew up in the Chili United Methodist Church, where she was christened in 1911. She was a longtime member of the Peru First Baptist Church. She was also a member of the Carmel Care Guild in Carmel, Indiana, the Womens' Auxiliary of Miami County Bar Association and a life member of Dukes Hospital Auxiliary in Peru.

Funeral services were at the Chili United Methodist Church, with her grandnephew Rev. Alan Ash officiating.

Notes for GRATION PATRICK WICKERHAM:

Gration's father died of tuberculosis when his children were young. His mother was a nurse. She found it necessary to work after her husband's death and was unable to be home to care for young Gration. He was sent to live with his mother's aunt, a Mrs. Stewart, in southwest Peru. He worked hard and put himself through college.

He was an attorney in Peru, Indiana, and also served as the Dukes Memorial Hospital attorney. He died in his early 50's of a heart attack while mowing the yard.

"Harold" was born at home at the "home place" in Peru Township, Miami County., probably in 1912. His sister, Flora, had been born in 1911 and was a baby when the family moved there.

Notes for MARJORIE ELIZABETH ASH:

Marjorie was the "farmer" daughter. From a very young age, she would follow her father around the farm and help with chores. She named one of the horses Tony. There was 21 years difference in her age and the oldest child in the family. She was therefore near the same age as some of her nieces and nephews. When Frances Ash was a baby, Marjorie was six years old. Marjorie and a friend of hers used to take the baby out to their playhouse and "play house" with her.

When brother Harold bought his motorcycle, he did so because his friend, Raymond Rush had one. Through this relationship, Marjorie met her future husband. She and Raymond Rush lived on a farm in northern Miami County (Richland Township) and also worked as professional photographers.

Marjorie is a member of the Christian Missionary Alliance Church.

Newspaper announcement of wedding:

The marriage of Miss Lova Flora and Joseph L. Hood took place Tuesday evening, April 5, at the home of the bride's brother, Bert Flora, in Chili. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P.M. Fisher, of Peru, in the presence of the immediate family and friends. The wedding march was played by Miss Goldie Fouts of Denver. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served. A number of handsome and useful presents were received. Mrs. Hood is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Flora of Chili, and Mr. Hood is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Deo Hood, of Mexico. Both young people are well known in this community. After visiting several weeks with relatives and friends, they will leave for the northwest where they will make their future home.

Written on her "Wedding Anniversary" in 1960 (48th), by Lova Alice Flora Hood:

"Forty-eight years ago today we were married--was at Gramma Hood's in Mexico for a month, cleaned her house. Left Ft. Wayne May 9, 1912 for Canada.

Bought land section 13, but gave it up and rented land. In 1918 we moved where we now live, bought new land and broke it. Built the barn and house that year. Before we moved here, John, Russ, Nelda and Omer were born.

In the fall 1913, my mother (Almeda Hersey-Flora) and Grandmother Hood (Martha Ann Fisher Hood) were here in harvest time. Cooked for threshers and looked after Russ. They did not like it out here. In 1918 we spent the winter in the states. John, 6 years old, Russ 4 years, Nelda 2 years, and Omer 2 months when we left here. Left 2 men to batch and look after things.

In the year 1929 we had lots of company. Joe's father (Deo Sylvester Hood) and 3 brothers (Lyman, Clinton, Herman) came in harvest time. In two weeks more came. They camped and cooked along the way. Hubert, Lee (Ash) and their son Wilson, Lillie (Omer Flora's wife) and her daughter Elizabeth Flora and my sister Anna Ash. We had a wonderful visit."
